The Institute Secretary
hat has drawn up the report

ARTICLE 16 – (2) Before defending a master's thesis, and for theses that have been corrected, the student completes the thesis and submits it to their advisor. The advisor submits the thesis to the Institute, along with their opinion that it is defensible. The Institute obtains a plagiarism software report for the thesis and sends it to the advisor and the jury members. If actual plagiarism is detected in the data in the report, the thesis is sent to the Institute's Board of Directors for a decision, including the justification.

(*) The unanimous/majority vote will be written in writing.

() The decision to accept / reject or correct will be written in writing.
